COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

There have been several inquiries made at the office pertaining to the law I mentioned in this column last week that is supposed to give relief to the elderly taxpayer.

An important aspect of the law that is not appealing to most individuals is a lien is created against the property for the amount of any increase that might occur. This lien must be paid when the estate is settled. In some instances the money involved could take a large percentage of the value of the estate.

The Board of Selectmen met last week with the engineers who are working on the final plans for construction of the sewage disposal plant. Except for some relatively minor changes in design and changes in location of some of the injector stations the plans remain the same as the preliminary study.

We have been told we can expect the construction to be completed in two or three years.

PLANNING MEETING FOR "LIVING NATIVITY SCENE" TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The planning meeting for Bethel's "Living Nativity Scene" will be held on Thursday, Dec. 4 (tonight) from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Farrar, Spring Street.

Anyone interested in helping with this annual community project is invited to attend the meeting. Those unable to attend may call and leave their names.

20 COURSES OFFERED TO 350 IN ADULT ED. PROGRAM MAY EXPAND PROGRAM

The Adult Education program in S.A.D. 44 started a little less than a year ago. To date, 20 courses have been offered involving a total of 350 adults. The emphasis has been on High School Diploma Courses and the area of General Adult Education (non-credit courses taken for interest).

Due to the response to date, there is now under consideration a move to greatly expand the program. As the program develops in 1970, it will most likely include four years: Basic Education (courses for those not having completed the 8th grade); High School Diploma Courses; General Adult Education, and Vocational Education (obtaining skills to be used on the job). The courses to be offered will depend upon your response to a survey to be distributed the beginning of next week. If anyone is interested in a course not included on the survey and they know of others sharing the interest, they should contact Dave Peniston at Telstar Regional High School (824-2027).

Some interesting information received from the State Department of Education:

1. According to the 1960 census 11% of the adults over 25 residing in the S. A. D. 44 district have not completed the 8th grade and 47% have not completed the 12th grade.

2. Adults interested in finishing High School will be interested in the following courses of credit: two years in the military service (1 credit); certain apprenticeship programs (1 credit); three years of consecutive experience in one occupation (1 credit).

The last two areas require that the candidate for a diploma be 21 years old before he or she may receive a credit.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE SUNDAY, DEC. 7

An evangelistic team of 14 students from Eastern Nazarene College will spend the week end in Bethel and participate in special programs at the Bethel Church of the Nazarene on Sunday, Dec. 7. The group will bring their special message and music to both the morning service at 11 o'clock and the 7 o'clock evening service.

TELSTAR STUDENTS ENJOY NEW YORK TRIP

Twenty-six students from Telstar Regional High School with others from Maine and New Hampshire schools left Friday for a trip to New York. On the itinerary were visits to the United Nations Building, International Building, Empire State Building, Lincoln Center, Macy's Natural History Building, Chinatown, and a tour of the city by bus. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Weaver and Mrs. Ernest Packard, all from Bethel.

The group wishes to thank the chaperones, those furnishing transportation, and businesses who made it possible for them to make the trip.

S.A.D. 44 DIRECTORS PROPOSE $300 INCREASE FOR STARTING DEGREE TEACHERS IN 1970-71

The board of directors of Maine School Administrative District 44 accepted a proposed salary schedule for teaching personnel for the 1970-71 school year at a meeting in Andover Monday evening. The proposed schedule provides for a starting salary of $6,200 for instructors possessing a bachelor's degree, a $300 increase over the current schedule. Other steps in the schedule reflect comparable increases.

Eddie Snyder of Andover, chairman of the board's salary committee, informed the directors that the district's teachers had approved the proposed schedule. Other members of the salary panel were John Ricker of Andover, and Paul Wight of Newry.

The proposed 1970-71 schedule:

Years	Non-Bach-Exp.	Bach-Degree	Mas-elor's	Master's
0	$5,200	$6,200	$6,700	$7,200
1	5,460	6,510	7,035	7,500
2	5,720	6,820	7,370	7,920
3	5,980	7,130	7,705	8,280
4	6,240	7,440	8,040	8,640
5	6,500	7,750	8,375	9,000
6	6,760	8,060	8,710	9,360
7	7,020	8,370	9,045	9,720
8	7,280	8,680	9,380	10,080
9	7,540	8,990	9,715	10,440
10	7,800	9,300	10,050	10,800

The directors gave preliminary approval to district policy that would require prior approval of the board of directors of school-sanctioned educational trips which are of overnight duration or outside the continental United States.

Also given preliminary approval was a board policy regarding married students at the secondary level. Married students, according to the policy, will be allowed to complete requirements to achieve a high school diploma and extra-curricular participation under the same conditions that apply to unmarried students.

Action on policy regarding school attendance by pregnant students was tabled until the next meeting.

Mrs. Suzanne Taylor of Bethel was approved as District teacher of elementary art, kindergarten through grade 6, to succeed Mrs. Lanie Wright, recently resigned. Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of Edward Little High School, Auburn, in 1954, and attended the University of Maine for two years. She attended the Defense Language Institute in Germany, and has studied art privately in the United States and Germany. She has conducted private art classes for three years, and has taught art in the Adult Education Program in Grey-New Gloucester in 1969. Mrs. Taylor at present is teaching art in the S.A.D. 44 Adult Education Program. She is married to Charles P. Taylor of the Telstar faculty.

Jeffery Clough was approved as an English instructor at Telstar for the remainder of the current school year to succeed George Stebbins. Mr. Clough is a 1965 graduate of MCI, Pittsfield, and received a B. A. degree from Nasson College, Springfield, in 1969, with a major in English. He is married and lives in Locke Mills.

Mrs. Priscilla Hotte, member of the guidance staff at Telstar, was approved as acting department head for the remainder of the school year.

Three board members were named to meet and discuss the present and future plans of the adult education program with David Denison, program director. Members of the committee are: Dale Thurston, Bethel, chairman; Robert Day, Woodstock, and Richard Melville, Greenwood.

AMERICAN MOTORISTS LITTER HIGHWAYS AT MONTHLY RATE OF ONE CUBIC YARD PER MILE

The Maine State Highway Commission has recently received the results of a national survey of roadside litter. It revealed that motorists are dumping trash along the roadways each month at the rate of about one cubic yard of litter per mile.

According to the survey, each month American motorists drop an average of 1,304 pieces of litter for every mile of the nation's vast network of interstate and primary highways—nearly 16,000 pieces per mile per year.

These figures were revealed by the first national survey of roadside litter, a project sponsored by Keep America Beautiful, Inc., a national litter-prevention organization. The survey was conducted by the Highway Research Board of the National Academy of Sciences in cooperation with the highway departments of 29 participating states, one of which was the Maine State Highway Commission.

An estimate of 59% of all items were paper, 16% were cans, 6% were plastics, 13% were miscellaneous and 6% were glass bottles and jars.

The large miscellaneous grouping was divided between tires, lumber and a variety of unclassified items ranging from hair curlers, underwear and false teeth to ice chests and washing machines.

It appeared that the total litter volume was positively correlated with average daily traffic but other relationships were not clearly established with roadway factors.

The report said that control of cans and bottles alone will not solve the litter problem and additional punitive measures are not likely to prove effective. It also said the most practical approach appears to be educational and publicity efforts.

el, chairman; Robert Day, Woodstock, and Richard Melville, Greenwood.

Eddie Snyder and John Ricker of Andover, and Paul Wight of Newry, who served as salary negotiating committee with the teachers, were appointed to meet and discuss salaries with administrative and non-teaching personnel of the District.

Claude Blanchard of Andover was present at the meeting and asked if transportation was to be furnished home after games for Andover students participating in basketball. Superintendent Ralph K. Ryder informed him that, under district policy, it would be.

Following an executive session the group reconvened and voted to elect Ralph K. Ryder as superintendent of the district for a two-year term to begin July 1, 1970.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Sally Curtis as art instructor at Telstar effective Dec. 17, 1969.

Members of the board not present at the Monday meeting were Paul Wight of Newry and Milton Mills of Woodstock.

The next regular meeting of the directors will be held Monday evening, Dec. 15, in the Telstar Regional High School cafeteria at 7:30.

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

As I stepped out tonight it was just sunset time, one of the wonders of Nature. I paused to admire the beauty of the western sky. The sun's rays spread wide in a fan-like picture of soft colors. Above were tiny clouds forming curls and fluff as they reached down toward the horizon. Between two broken clouds appeared a yellow light. Almost as quickly as it came, all faded away into the veil of night.

Different seasons bring a different work of art on this western canvas. With the breeze as a brush, color and beauty change rapidly. Look now for in a moment it may vanish.

Some of our most beautiful pictures are of sunsets. I recall in late summer this year as we sat on the lawn looking across the pond there appeared three suns in the water. I hurried for my camera and captured the picture. When we looked at it later on the screen, there were the three suns, but the few seconds which it took to get the camera, two of the suns had started to become one. So moments count.

Water reflections are often as beautiful as the sunset itself.

But do sunsets ever end? I think not for they remain in mind's eye as long as one admires nature.

During spring sunset tints are more often bright yellow or light pink. But as time passes and the dust begins to gather they acquire a reddish hue.

Those we recall most often are the summer glows which we associate with our pleasant surroundings: lawns under a haze of delicate pastel shadings, masses of roses, shadows of the mountains on blue gleaming ridges across the valley, calls of the evening birds, the afterglow of golden sheen upon the water, forests stretching to the humped profiles of Edgecomb and Long and shift of rainbow colors to darkness.

December, too, has its glory, so watch for the apple greens, scarlets and gold, mauves and rose, through your windows with no leaves to obscure the colors.

When these scarlet strips line the blue of the sky and the eventide of the year approaches; the twinkling stars shine out, winds are blustery, winter comes but we accept it and are ready.

At the Hayes Homestead they had a very festive holiday and week end. Thursday, a party of 15 took dinner with some other relatives at the Paddock at Portland.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Bickford, Myrtle Hayes, and Gary Yates, Bryant Pond, joined for a party of 14.

Saturday, there were 17 for dinner and supper and the family attended a wedding of a relative.

Sunday morning found them up at 2:30 a. m. to prepare for the departure of son, Edwin, and family, of Hyde Park, N. Y. His daughter, Diane, and friend, Iris Bailey, had to take a plane from Boston to Cleveland, Ohio, where they would be guests of Miss Bailey's parents until they returned to their studies at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett and family were at the Poland camp, Concord Pond, on Thursday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Morgan on Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Lelno and family, Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Morgan, Donald and Michael, Tubbs District.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt, Bangor, Ann Holt,

The Daughters of Veterans met at the K. of P. Hall Monday evening with 17 present. A nice lunch was served after the meeting and a birthday cake was presented to Debra Grover. A cake walk was very much enjoyed. Sheryl Nelson was the lucky winner.

Much sympathy is extended to the family of Dick Jones in the loss of his mother, who passed away at the hospital in Bridgton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Grover have been spending the past week at their camp in Waterford.

Dick Jones and Russell Dudley were two of the lucky deer hunters, each getting one Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grover Sr. had for dinner Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. John Grover Jr., and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Grover and son, and Mae Hobson.

Gladys Kilgore joined a dinner party held at the home of her brother and wife in Bethel. Their son, Guy Parker Jr. and family, from Deyon, Conn., were also there.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stone from West Paris called on Gladys Kilgore Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Grover and daughter, Joyce, visited Bessie Andrews, at Bryant Pond, Sunday.

A large moose was seen on the Virginia Lake road one day last week.

Mrs. Vesta Nelson and Mrs. Elaine Lagieux went to Portland Friday.

Steven Andrews is helping his father week ends at Virginia Farm.

Several from here attended the funeral of Iva Jones, held at South Paris, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanwood Nelson were guests of the Bryan family in Sweden Thursday.

It looks as though winter was here, as it is snowing here today and bird feeders are surrounded by birds.

Gorham, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morgan and Mrs. Lucy Barrows, Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hakala and family were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kilponen, South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coffin, West Paris, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bragg of Peru were guests Thursday of her mother, Eva Felton.

Callers this week at Norman Millett's were: Mrs. Barbara Immonen, West Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Oldham, and Mrs. Curtis, West Peru.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bowen, of Massachusetts, were at their cottage here on Hicks Pond a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. Keijo Sarrinen, of Troy, N. H., were in town on Friday and stopped to see Mrs. Clyde Morgan.

The three years accreditation rating is the highest rating awarded to a hospital.

BETHEL VILLAGE SCHOOLS
NOTE 50th ANNIVERSARY OF CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK

The week of November 16-22, 1969, was the 50th Anniversary of Children's Book Week.

Mrs. Jackie Stebbins, 6th grade teacher at the Crescent Park School discussed the new set-up with the teachers at a meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Stebbins gave each teacher a pamphlet which tells them all about the library, what books are where, how they can be found, and of course about the wonderful supply of magazines now available to the students.

The Crescent Park Library is staffed by volunteer workers who spend one hour per week at the library, which is opened only Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday morning from 9:30 to 10:30. Their duties are to check out the books for the students, put returned books back on the shelves, help the students find specific books and reference material.

There are many things to be done at the library, which can't be accomplished during this hour, such as getting new books ready for the shelves, filing cards in the catalog file, and mending old books. Making sure everything is in order and in its place. Mrs. Virginia Keniston has been responsible for all of this, including the volunteers to help.

This year we have added over 600 new books, which had to be catalogued and put on the shelves. Alton Luxton, school custodian, has made some new bookcases with adjustable shelves, which is a big improvement. A new rack for paper back books has been added.

Visitors are welcome to visit the school and see the improvements. The staff is proud of what the elementary students can be offered. It is interesting to note that each child in every grade, has the privilege to visit the library once each week and take out reading material. This material may be taken home, except for reference books. It's a busy place. It is a worthwhile situation, which is eventually planned to be open all day long. It is only

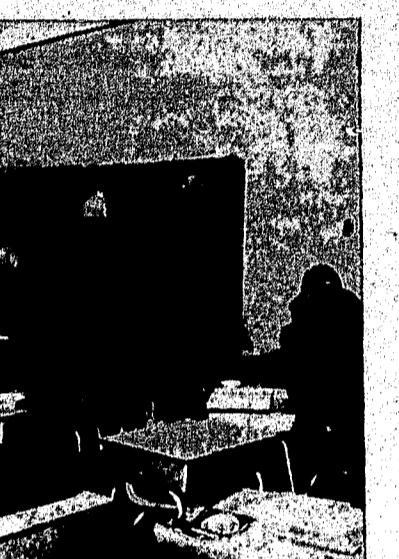

EAST ANDOVER YOUTH NAMED CO-CAPTAIN OF 1970 SOCCER SQUAD AT NICHOLS COLLEGE

Rodney Swain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Swain, East Andover, and Greg Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Baker, Berlin, Conn., were named co-captains for the 1970 Nichols College soccer team by Coach Bill Steglitz at the college's annual fall sports banquet held on Nov. 20.

Both Swain and Baker were full-backs on this fall's soccer team which finished 5-5-3. Swain has been starting for the Bison Bobbers for the three years he has been at Nichols. He was instrumental in holding opponents to 12 goals in 10 games. Nichols posted victories over Fitchburg State, Assumption, Worcester State, Franklin Pierce and Bryant Colleges. The bobbers tied Holy Cross, Nason and Boston College. Swain is a graduate of Gould Academy in 1967 and is a junior in finance.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXPAYERS IN MAINE TO SEND RETURNS TO ANDOVER, MASS., CENTER

The 559,437 Federal income taxpayers in Maine will be sending their income tax returns directly to the Internal Revenue Service Center in Andover, Mass., starting in January, District Director Whitney L. Wheeler has announced.

When filing their return individual taxpayers will be using the new Form 1040 which consolidates the old card form 1040A and provides all taxpayers the opportunity of taking advantage of every tax saving benefit.

The new form 1040 is a one-page basic form to which particular situations can be covered by filing available schedules.

BARRACKS AND AUXILIARY

Barracks and Ladies Auxiliary met at the Legion Hall Tuesday evening, for their last regular meeting until April 6, 1970.

The Auxiliary opened their meeting at 8 o'clock. A short business meeting followed, with President Leona Lurvey presiding. One officer was absent due to an accident. Eleven members and one guest were present. A check to World War I Veterans at Togus for coupon books, and a check for the Christmas Fund was also sent. Membership was reported as 100% paid up.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. A thank you note was read from Iola Forbes. A sunshine basket for Blanche Howe was delivered. A flag for the World War I's was purchased for their own use. The gavel was then turned over to Hilda Donahue, installing officer, who was assisted by Nellie Cummings.

The following were installed for 1970: Iola Forbes, President; Rose Taylor, Senior Vice President; Olive Head, Junior Vice President; Mary Moore, Conductress; Adeline Dexter, Secretary; Marjorie Cummings, Treasurer; Leona Lurvey, Past President; Historian; Selma Chapman, Patriotic Instructor; Frances Bennett, Chaplain; Nellie Cummings, Guard; Isabell Crotenau, trustee for three years.

In the absence of Iola Forbes, Vice President Rose Taylor presented the Past President's Pin to Leona Lurvey and installing gifts to Hilda Donahue and Nellie Cummings.

The treasurer's books were audited and found in order. Iola Forbes was installed in her own home following the meeting. Refreshments were served and the Barracks joined the Auxiliary.

Learning a foreign language at Telstar Regional High School is like learning to play a musical instrument. Skill is developed through practice, correction and more learning.

During the study of the foreign language the student passes through the four stages of learning which are: listening, speaking, reading and writing. The mastering of these skills is essential if the student is to achieve any degree of proficiency and fluency in the language he is studying. With the help of the teacher, the students learn to master each one of these skills, following a slow progression from one stage to another till all four are thoroughly mastered.

EXPLANATION OF THE FOUR SKILLS

Listening—The first skill mastered by the student of language is listening. During this period of learning, the teacher patiently helps the student concentrate on learning a new sound system. There are no books, no printed material of any kind.

HALL-DALE CAGERS TOP TELSTAR 54-35

Off to a 12 point lead in the first quarter, Hall-Dale High School outscored Telstar Regional High School 54-35 in Mountain Valley Conference basketball Tuesday night at Bethel. The middle periods were even with the visitors adding only one point to their margin, but down the stretch they opened the gap with a 12-7 advantage.

George Davala, Brad Moore and Colin Roy were chief shooters for the visitors while Randy Knox was high for the home team with nine points. Telstar will entertain Lisbon Friday. They are scheduled to journey to Fryeburg Saturday, and to Jay next Tuesday.

kind. If any kind of written material is introduced during this crucial period, the learner will neglect to develop the good habit of listening. If the student develops the good habit of listening well, he will learn to speak the language he is studying well.

Listening is so critical in language learning that only the ear can be trusted as guardian of pronunciation. Allowing the student to see the language in the printed form will hinder the students ability to properly pronounce the phrases and sentences which either the teacher or the tape presents for practice in the classroom.

Speaking—During this period of learning, the student learns to speak the language by listening and then imitating after a model, (either the teacher or the taped voice of a native speaker.)

Reading—During this period of learning, the student masters the ability to read aloud with acceptable phrasing, timing, and pronunciation of the individual sound of the language he is studying. Reading also helps the student to master the ability to understand the grammatical structure of the language.

Writing—In writing, the student reproduces what he has already heard and spoken in the classroom. Through dictations, the student is obliged to recreate with accurate spelling and punctuation, either short or complete answers based on the readings.

THE CLASSROOM: WHAT GOES ON IN IT

Language learning, as taught at Telstar is the best way the student can achieve a high degree of fluency and proficiency in a foreign language. During his study of language the student masters the ability to communicate with other people with a "native-like" fluency because the phrases and sentences that he practices in the classroom are, first, presented in a natural manner by trained adult speakers, and secondly, these phrases and sentences are accompanied by a series of filmstrips depicting the daily life of the people whose language is being studied.

Under the guidance of the language instructor, the tape drill and the filmstrip are synchronized in such a way that the student becomes imaginatively a member of the community whose language is being learned. While the students' ears listen attentively to the sounds and intonations of melody and rhythm of the phrases and sentences being presented, his eyes are occupied by the filmstrip. With the help of the teacher he learns to understand and identify the characters and their relationship to each other in the filmstrip. This is a critical thing in the audio visual program because each frame of the filmstrip presents a setting of a real daily life situation in the foreign language.

After the material has been presented by the instructor for both listening and repetition by the students, the student responds to questions asked by the teacher, or by another student. When the student either asks or answers questions in the foreign language, he seeks and discovers meaning in communication.

In brief, the student is constantly being called upon to communicate with either the teacher or his fellow students, and to develop more meaning in communication in an environment approximating that of the language he is learning. The student is obliged to respond because he is drawn into a new environment and made a part of it. He participates in life as it is lived in that country.

Although the nature of our language program is to help the student to develop the ability to communicate with other people with a "native-like" fluency in the language he is learning, the culture, customs, and habits of the given country are not neglected. Through the years of instruction the student learns about the cultural traits of the foreign people in many ways.

Filmstrips, movies, magazines and test illustrations serve this purpose. At times the student shares imaginatively in the foreign culture as if he were a member of that community. Brief cultural "side trips" based on the teachers' own knowledge and personal experiences are discussed between the teacher and the students.

GILEAD

Mrs. Clifford O. Cole, Cor.
Mrs. Clifford Cole, Mrs. Wendell Tyler and Brenda Cole called on Mrs. Harriet Fissette at Gorham, N. H., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chapman had as Thanksgiving guests, Mrs. Stephen McLain, Mrs. Blanche Chapman and Mrs. Bessie Bean.

Thanksgiving guests at Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cole's were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cole, Mr. Merle Cole and daughter, Brenda.

Ernest Chapman, son of Raymond Chapman, shot an eight point buck that weighed 210 lbs.

MAGALLOWAY

Mrs. Bessie Harvey, Corres.
The deer season closed in Maine Sunday and in New Hampshire Monday, 125 deer were checked at Abbot Brook, 60 at Magalloway, 218 at Errol and 60 at Diamond Gate. A number of bear were also killed.

Mrs. Grace Turner is very ill at the Mary Hitchcock Hospital at Hanover. She is having a lot of tests.

The McGinley family closed their house for the winter Sunday. Bruce shot a buck and his father, Harold, a doe, all the several families were there Thanksgiving.

The dance planned at the Magalloway Town Hall was not held on Friday evening.

I went to Lancaster Thanksgiving for dinner at my grandson's. He came after me in the morning and brought me back in the evening.

Mrs. Bertha West stayed with my small dog and cats.

My grandson S/Sgt. Frederick Abbott, also went to Vassalboro Wednesday night for his brother, Ronnie, and took him back on Saturday.

Leroy Olson called on his brother, Ellis Sunday night and also on me. He said he recently had a letter from my sister, Mrs. Gladys Bennett, saying she was going from Fort Wayne to Illinois to her second son, Donald and family.

About another inch of snow fell Sunday and the weather was cold as usual.

SUNDAY RIVER

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.
Eddie Windblad and friends were in Ketchikan Wednesday.

Norman Cross of Bethel and Charles Morse of Saco were at his camp at the Letter S, Wednesday.

Miss Helen Montague and friend, Mrs. A. Vogt of Bethel had dinner at the Sunday River Inn and later called on the R. M. Fleets.

Red Noyes did not get up to hunt this fall but his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Whittman, came and looked at the camp and called at R. M. Fleets, leaving a bantam hen and two baby chicks about two weeks old.

The David Fleet family had their Thanksgiving dinner Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Rolfe, of North Waterford, as guests.

Mrs. Richard Thomas came Saturday to spend some time with her daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Loy Harrell.

Mrs. Loy Harrell and baby daughter, returned home from the hospital, Sunday.

Well, hurray the hunting season is over for another year. Some were disappointed while others were happy. R. M. Fleet came in the last list. The rainy weather didn't help any.

Well, I get asked some questions that I can answer and some I can not. But the other day I saw something that I can not identify or name.

It was a surprise to see eight ducks go over in V formation. They looked dark as it was early in the day. They were going up river, perhaps to get their breakfast in a deep spot.

Now I would like to know if this is common with some breeds? What they might of been? and do they always travel the same as geese? We have seen many geese this fall but always going down river.

Per usual Thanksgiving has come and gone as it has for years. The people are still stuffed like the turkey were. Some, are more stuffed than others as they had two Thanksgiving dinners. Dishes were all forgotten—those three pounds that had been lost was all brought back and an extra three pounds with it!

Mrs. Eunice Hathaway entertained her two sons over the holiday.

The Yates had a gathering of 13

on Thursday of sons, daughters, and grandchildren.

Mrs. Lina Reynolds was an evening caller at Estes Yates, Thursday.

Lawrence Yates was at his parents, Sunday, and took Mr. and Mrs. Estes Yates to West Paris where they joined a gathering of 21 for their second Thanksgiving.

Not many deer were seen being hauled down the Sunday River road. Every one says they are very scarce and why not after such a winter as last winter was. So much deep snow and the dogs and other wild ones that prey on them. Why people will own a dog and let him run all over other people's property and the woods is beyond me. They sure don't have any love for the dog. My idea!

Thank God for all the nice weather that we were blessed with over the week end but this Dec. 1st doesn't look like a good wash day.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Dave of Englestown, N. J., were holiday guests at the Ed Dave's.

Mrs. Lina Reynolds left for Kona, Hawaii, on Tuesday. She expects to vacation there about two months. Her address is: Captain Cook, Box 431, Kona, Hawaii.

REV. HILDA L. IVES

The funeral of a noted woman minister, the Rev. Hilda Libby Ives, will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in Portland's Williston Congregational Church, where she was ordained 43 years ago.

Mrs. Ives, 83, died Tuesday night, Dec. 2, 1969, while driving on Cottage Road, South Portland. Her car went out of control and hit a tree, police said. A physician attributed death to a rupture of the aorta just before the accident.

Honorary president of the American Association of Women Ministers, Mrs. Ives served several parishes in rural Maine, then became rural secretary of the state Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Federation of Churches. For several years she taught at the Andover-Newton Theological Seminary in Newton, Mass.

Mrs. Ives was an ardent swimmer. At the age 52, while on the way to a world missionary meeting in India, she swam the Bosphorus between European and Asiatic Turkey.

The Federal Federation of Women's Clubs named Mrs. Ives in 1941 as one of the outstanding women of the previous half century.

A graduate of the University of Maine, she held honorary degrees from several colleges.

Widowed as a young woman, she reared five children while doing social work in the Portland area.

She outlived all her children except Mrs. John E. Palmer of Cumberland. Mrs. Ives leaves 18 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

On the 25th of November the Girl Scouts of Troop 674 held a candlelight rededication ceremony. Each girl rededicated herself to Scouting by repeating the Promise and Laws. We received our membership pins and cards. We have 21 girls from Bethel and Bryant Pond in our troop.

This week we started to work on the Health Aid badge. Mrs. Dexter Stowell spoke to our troop on first aid skills. We ended our meeting with the Juliette Lowe patrol presenting a Scout's own America the Beautiful.—Carolyn Cousins, Troop Scribe.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler Dunn and daughter of Ellsworth have moved to Bethel for the winter months.

LOCATION OF POST OFFICE AT EAST ANDOVER CHANGED

On Nov. 29 the East Andover Post Office left the building that had housed it for the past 100 years and moved to the store owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hutchins. Mrs. Hutchins will be officer-in-charge.

The late Mrs. C. B. Crooker was postmaster from 1911 through 1944 when she retired. During all these years it had been in the front part of her home where she also had a store, selling pastry, beverages, candy and canned goods. When she retired in October of 1946 her daughter-in-law, Myra Crooker, took over the duties. She commuted daily until her retirement in February 1969. Since February the post office continued at the Crooker home with Darlene Hall and Ann Morton serving as officers-in-charge.

Sometime prior to 1946 the late Mr. Crooker made wooden individual boxes to hold the mail. When Mrs. Myra Crooker took over the duties she purchased 36 steel combination boxes and rent was paid each month by the families in the community. The post office took care of approximately 50 families. This number included families living between East Andover and Andover, summer residents and campers.

On Nov. 29 a pick up truck backed up to the worn door and removed the entire unit of boxes. There was no delay in the mail pick-up and many in the community knew nothing about the change-over until they went to pick up the Saturday mail.

To the elderly folks in the small community this was quite a change, but as always, they will adjust. Many were pleased to know that East Andover would continue to have a post office.

The office hours will remain the same. Window service will be from 12:30 noon to 5:30 p. m. daily six days a week. There is a large mail box in front of the store for after-hour deposits.
